SCHOOL BUS SCHEDULING AND ROUTING

Regular bus routes shall follow town, county, state, or federally maintained roads. Schedules and routes shall be established by the superintendent in cooperation with the director of transportation, subject to Board review as necessary.

Routes will not be established on any town, county, state, or federally maintained road if the superintendent or superintendent's designee determines that the road is too hazardous for the safety of students.

Buses will not enter private property in order to pick up or discharge riders.
