

DOUGLAS COUNTY SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD ITEM
BOE Meeting: June 6th, 2025

Subject: GP 1.0, Board's Purpose

Recommended Action: The Board of Education may submit comments, ask for clarification, and request additional information to assist the Board in the compliance ruling for these policies, which will occur June 10th, 2025 as recommended by Director Kaylee Winegar, Douglas County School District Board of Education.

Pertaining to Governance Policy: GP 1.0, Board's Purpose. Complete policy language is linked here.

Background: The Douglas County School Board performs a routine and systematic process of self-evaluation where it regularly reviews its Board-Superintendent Linkage and Board Process policies. The review is meant to be positive, constructive, and educational.

Rationale/Objective: The objective of monitoring GP 1.0, Board's Purpose is three-fold:

1. To ensure that Douglas County School District Board of Education is in compliance with this policy;
2. To hold itself accountable to the public for its performance; and,
3. To review policy wording.

Cost/Benefit Analysis: NA

Alternatives: The Board of Education may:

- a) Accept the report as is and adopt a resolution at the August 19, 2025 meeting, indicating that the Board is in compliance;
- b) Not accept the report and ask that changes to the report be made and brought back for further discussion; or,
- c) Accept the report as is and adopt a resolution at the August 19, 2025 meeting stating that the Board is out of compliance.
